Call to Worship

We come to the well of fear and doubt.

We have drawn deeply of those waters.

We come to the well of anger and hate.

These waters flourish in all the land.

Lord, bring us to the water of peace and hope.

Lord, bring us to the well of salvation. AMEN.

Opening Hymn #340 “This Is My Song”

Opening Prayer

Prayer of Confession

God of living waters, we confess that we have often turned from you and wandered in our own wildernesses of fear and doubt. Our thirst mounts daily, seeking to be quenched by your redeeming love. Yet, when that love is offered to us, we again turn away, unable to truly believe that you would actually heal and love us. We have behaved in very unloving ways. We have chosen to ignore those in need or to deal only passively with them. Our hearts are not placed in service to others, but rather in self-serving motives. Heal us, merciful God. Wash us again in the living water. Help us be faithful servants. AMEN.

Assurance of Pardon

AMEN.

Prayer for Illumination

We remember the woman at the well – her questions, her truth, her witness.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, so like her we may ask candidly, reveal ourselves deeply, and share your Good News freely.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us, so we may worship you in spirit and truth. Amen.

Scripture Reading

New Testament Gospel

John 4:1-42

Thanks be to God!

Pastoral Prayer

Holy God, whose Spirit moved over the waters at the dawn of creation, hear our prayers for all who thirst today.

We pray for those who are spiritually thirsty, who long to know Your presence, but don't know where to find You. We pray for those who are alone and without hope, those who long to feel needed and loved, those who are searching for meaning and purpose.

O healing river,
pour down Your waters, and heal Your people.

We pray for all who are physically thirsty, who don't have enough water to drink, or feed their animals, whose fields are parched, whose crops have withered; those who have to walk long distances to find enough water to survive, or who have to be content with water that is unclean.

We pray for those whose homes and villages are torn apart because of drought or famine.

O healing river,
pour down Your waters, and heal Your people.

We pray for those who are thirsty for justice, who long for an equal sharing of resources among peoples and nations; God, we ask that you would open our hearts to the needs of all who thirst. Give us courage to work together for justice, to stand alongside those who are thirsty, so that all people, everywhere, may live without want or fear, and may discover the abundant life You promise to each one. In the name of Jesus Christ—the source of living water—we pray.

O healing river,
pour down Your waters, and heal Your people.

Renew all that we are and have been, fill us with a new future, inspire us with recreation, and pull us into resurrection. Meet us at the wells where we are lonely, where we are forgotten, where we are hurt by others, and give us to drink the grace that brings life again.

Sermon "Living Water for the Thirsty Soul"

Rev. Lindsey Carnes

Hymn # 182 "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say"

Introduction to the Offering

When we give to the ministries of our church communities we are speaking with our money, our talents and our time. We are saying that there is hope, that there is compassion and there is love in the world. We are saying that Jesus is all those things, so let us give as God has called us to give.

Offertory

Offering Prayer

We believe, and so we will speak. We speak, and so we will live. We will live, and so we will be generous, because we know that, by your grace, these gifts we offer will extend hope, peace, and life to more and more people. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Doxology Hymn #606 "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow (Doxology)"

Closing Hymn #547 "Go, My Children, with My Blessing"
